

Social World

EDNA CLOYD, Editor

Y 28, 1956

TORRANCE HERALD

Seven

TO SPEND WEEK-END AT Y CAMP

Mr. and Mrs. Don Anderson departed Friday for Round Meadows Y camp where Mr. Anderson headed a committee who are working on the buildings. Accompanying the Andersons were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burnham, A. C. Turner, Kenneth McBrean, William Specht, Fred Hansen, Bob Curry, Phil Lisman, Bill Sturgis and Charles Stewart.

Stork Shower Hosted by J. W. Dolans

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Dolan of 1351 W. 219th St., entertained Sunday afternoon at a combined family gathering and stork shower. Shower honoree was their son's wife, Mrs. Robert C. Dolan.

Guests at the enjoyable affair included Messrs. and Mmes. George C. Dolan and family of Puente, Nathan Dolan and daughter, of Fontana, Jack Dolan of Los Angeles, Howard Johnson and daughter of Pomona, and Miss Wilma Dolan of Riverside.

Torrance guests were Mrs. Robert Allen and children, the honoree's mother, Mrs. Dennis C. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Pierson, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Hampton and family.

Local Sorority Pledges Eight

Eta Kappa chapter of Epsilon Sigma Alpha of Torrance held a candlelight ceremony, conducted by Winona Jackson for eight pledges who were given pins.

Those who were pledged include Mmes. Sonja Hornles, Ann Verne, Mary Espinoza, June White, Naomi McVey, Martha Gillie, Justine Nasplou and Catherine O'Brien.

Two more pledges who had been pledged to the chapter previously received pins. They were Peggy LaFrancois and Blanche Angus.

The rituals took place following a dinner at which members were presented jonquils the sorority flower and tiny yellow and blue pillows for their pins.

FISHING PARTY

Spending the week end trout fishing at Crowley Lake were Messrs. and Mmes. Robert Dexter, Robert Martin and Robert Allen.

CREATIVE FASHIONS . . . were modeled by Mrs. Jack Dean, Mrs. Howard Altermatt and Mrs. John Kemp, Jr., at the "Spool and Bobbin" Fashion Show by the Junior Woman's Club held in their clubhouse.

Junior Women Proudly Model Home Made Clothes at "Spool and Bobbin" Show

"Spool and Bobbin" fashion show presented annually by the Torrance Junior Woman's Club provides an incentive for the members to model clothes which they have made. Background for this year's inspiring exhibit was an assortment of colorful, travel posters grouped on the walls of their Engracia Ave. clubhouse, where the event was held last Wednesday. Guests were members of their sister club, the Senior Women.

Mrs. Ray G. Lires introduced the member-manikins and gave a detailed description of their creations as they promenade down the center aisle.

Mrs. Lee Clotworthy was chairman of the lovely affair. Models include Mmes. Bob Zipper, Jack Dean, Howard Altermatt, Sid Gans, Phil Hoffman, John Kemp, Robert Kerber, John Agapito and daughter, Debbie, John McVey, G. F. Nedros, William Rogers, Lee Clotworthy, R. J. Setting and daughter, Christine, William Sullivan, Fred Smith and Miss Gerry Wood.

Following the show, Mrs. Harry Lewis, Junior-Senior representative presented the Senior gift, a silver set and hostess trays, to Mrs. H. L. Mitchell, Senior president.

Mrs. Robert Mowery, Junior president, introduced the president-elect, Mrs. James K. Lees and the Senior president-elect, Mrs. Lee A. McCoy. She also introduced Mrs. A. F. R. Ewall, a new advisor.

Jr. Chamber Returns Home After Visit Entertains At Dinner Dance

Members of the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce entertained wives and guests Thursday evening with a dinner, fashion show and dancing at the Club Alondra.

Using a Gay Paree theme in the setting of a sidewalk cafe for the fashion show and programs picturing the Eiffel Tower, can-can girls, created a festive atmosphere for the affair attended by some 75 members, wives and guests.

Places were marked at the table with cards on which was written "Bonjour" with corsages attached for those of the ladies.

Background music for the fashion show was furnished by Paul Wells.

Wives of members who modeled summer fashions were Mmes. William Surgis, Ed Karlow, Gordon Jones, Milo Goetsch, Ralph Wood, Jack Smith and Lloyd Fossum.

Moal Gray Returns Home After Visit

Mrs. Moal Gray has returned to her home in San Francisco following a three week visit with her mother, Mrs. Maybelle Schmidt of 1739 Gramercy.

The visitor who is the former Loraine Schmidt, made a trip to Monrovia to visit with her brother Dale, and family, and also a sister, Mrs. W. E. Lewis of Torrance.

On Mother's Day, she and her mother had dinner in Hollywood and attended TV shows.

IN NEW YORK FOR MEETING

Mr. O. A. Krees left on the Super Chief Saturday evening to attend the annual meeting of the American Iron and Steel Institute held at the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York.

John Mangan was chairman of the event with decorations being done by Mrs. Howard Percy and Mrs. Al Kline. Mrs. John Mangan was in charge of publicity.

TURN BACK, TURN BACK, OH TIME IN THY FLIGHT— and Make Me a Little Girl Just for Tonight." The first lines of a famous, old poem expresses the theme. "Turn Back the Clock," of the Torrance Senior Women's party honoring their outgoing president, Mrs. H. L. Mitchell. The Tuesday luncheon party held at the home of Mrs. Victor Bernard of 1448 Engracia Ave., was a hilarious affair. Guests were served a luncheon from lunch boxes at a small table centered with a circus cake. Lollipops, bubble gum and licorice sticks were used in decorating a school room scene. A gift of a silver tray was presented to Mrs. Mitchell by Mrs. L. A. McCoy, president-elect. Front row, seated, right to left, Mmes. M. A. Bauman, J. D. Tomson, H. L. Mitchell, outgoing president; V. D. Benard, and J. A. Tweedy. Back row, J. A. Eisenbrandt, R. J. Prout, C. E. Cook, L. A. McCoy, president-elect, and J. Parke Montague.

Las Vecinas to Elect Officers

Las Vecinas Women's Club will hold its monthly meeting at 1 p.m. today at the Redondo Beach Women's Clubhouse.

Refreshments will be served by tea chairman Mrs. William Watson, assisted by her committee: Mmes. Trenton Dunphy, Burt Durst, Peter Jurisch, Rex Hayes, Ernest Russell, Joseph Saitta, Lee Scott, Max Webber, Ernest Waller and Laurence Wing.

The tea committee will be the first to use the two beautiful new tea services just purchased by the club. Following refreshments, will be the business meeting, yearly reports of the board members and election of officers for the club year 1956-57, followed by a social hour.

MARTHA CIRCLE ENJOYS LUNCHEON

Members of the Martha Circle of the Methodist Church celebrated a successful year with a luncheon Wednesday at the Marineland restaurant. Members present, were Mmes. Mary Seiden, Hilda Booth, Lillian Bower, Adel Birchfield, Florence Evans, Pearl Greer, Bertha Hamilton, Mable Hoff, Evelyn Howland, Selma Keefer, Estelle McMullen, Beatrice Moyer, Annie Olsen, Ethel Sonju, Hazel Hyde, Charlotte Dolan and Evelyn Schwab.

Hat Party to Be Staged by CDA Tonight

A setting that might be taken from the book of Alice in Wonderland, "The Mad Hatter," is the party featuring odd and unusual hat decorations to be a part of the social meeting of Court St. Catherine of Catholic Daughters this evening in the parish hall on Cota Ave.

Members will wear hats representing seasons, husband's business or of any special significance.

Mrs. John McVey is chairman of the event to be assisted by Mmes. Charles Allen, Dennis Flacy, L. Kitto and Roberte Lewellen Jr.

GAVEL EXCHANGE . . . between Mrs. Robert Fink, incoming president of Walteria PTA, and Mrs. Charles Jackson, outgoing president, in an annual ritual at the installation of newly elected officers assuming duties for the next school year.

Bon Voyage Banquet Given For Exchange Students

A fitting farewell was extended to Torrance's four foreign exchange students and two local teenagers who will study this summer in Europe, at a banquet held Tuesday evening at the YWCA. The affair was given by the local chapter of the AFSIS.

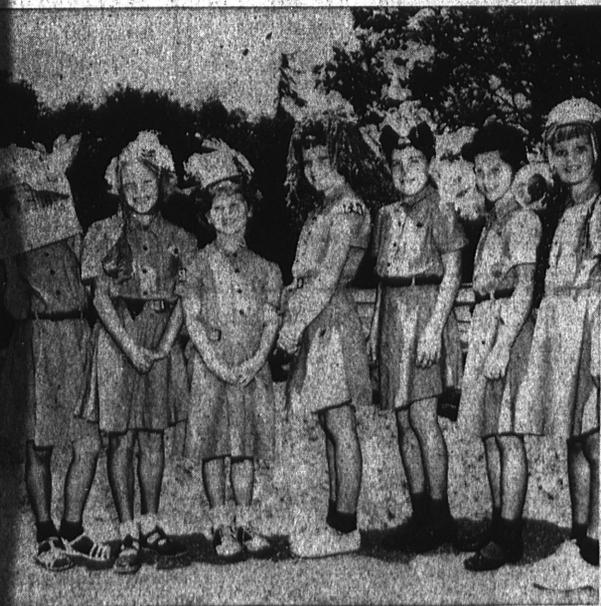

Those honored at the event attended by seventy-five leading Torrance citizens, were Adriaan Willemsen, from The Hague, Holland; Arno Mehling, Wuerzburg, Germany; Gloria Montesinos of Madrid, Spain; Anja Luukainen, chaperone of the Scandinavian countries for the program; Jean Salomone who will study in Hamburg, Germany, and Tom Quaggin, who will study in Arno Mehling's home town in Germany.

Speaking before the gathering was Anja Luukainen, who explained how these foreign students were selected and their qualifications for repre-sending their countries in America. Presenting farewell speeches were the four returning foreign students.

Among those attending the banquet were Dr. Hull, superintendent of schools, W. B. Magner, principal of Torrance High School and Mrs. J. B. Moseley, chairman of the local AFSIS chapter.

Guests were seated at a long table beautifully decorated in the red, white and blue colors with a ship and arrangement of gladioli decked with American flags forming the centerpiece of the table.

JULIETTE LOW, DAY . . . held this year at Torrance Park honored the founder of Girl Scouts. Some 350 Scouts gathered at the park for a varied program of interesting activities. The event is held each year and consists of a day long program. Members of Troop 250 under the leadership of Mmes. Roland Siann and Mrs. Julia Jones are shown wearing festive hats at the local affair. They are Pamela Holmes in straw bonnet; Louise Werry, French pom-poms; Linda Jones, rag mop; Carol Wells, hair clips; Donna Straube, pie tin dangle; Sally Klausner, superzonic space helmet and Debbie Stamm, Brownie.